

Folashade Alli SAN

Folashade Alli SAN, based in Lagos, Nigeria, is an internationally recognized Lawyer and Senior Advocate specializing in corporate law, arbitration, litigation, and intellectual property. She heads Folashade Alli and Associates, holding degrees from the University of Lagos and University College London. Called to the Nigerian and English Bars, she is active in global arbitration circles, including the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, UK, and the International Chamber of Commerce, Paris. Alli is known for her pro bono work, advocacy for the underprivileged, and expertise in legal disputes across various jurisdictions. She plays a significant role in the Nigerian Bar Association, contributing to its policies and serving on several committees. Recognized for her contributions to intellectual property and arbitration, she has trained the Nigerian Judiciary and spoken at numerous international forums