Steven Finizio is a partner in Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP's international arbitration and dispute resolution group, based in London. He has acted as counsel under the rules of leading international arbitration institutions and in ad hoc proceedings, involving the laws of jurisdictions in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the US, as well as disputes under bilateral and regional treaties. He has appeared as counsel in regional and other international courts, and has assisted in drafting arbitration legislation. He also serves as an arbitrator. Mr. Finizio is a member of the LCIA Court and the GIAC Advisory Council. He teaches international arbitration as Professor of Practice at SOAS University of London, and is on the faculty of international dispute resolution academies in Europe, Asia, and Africa. He writes frequently on international dispute resolution issues, and his publications include "A Practical Guide to International Commercial Arbitration: Assessment, Planning and Strategy," and "International Commercial Arbitration," in The Law of Transnational Business Transactions.
