Marcin Kałduński is a vice-director and counsel at the International and European Law Department, the General Counsel to the Republic of Poland (Prokuratoria), which is responsible for representing the State and State entities in arbitration. His primary task is to act as counsel in international commercial and investment arbitration proceedings (the ICSID AF Rules, the ICC Rules, the SCC Rules and the UNCITRAL Rules). He has acted in matters relating to, among others, construction, infrastructure, energy, finance, mining and metals. He also practices before international courts, including the European Court of Human Rights and the Court of Justice of the European Union. Marcin is also Professor of International Law at the Nicolaus Copernicus University (Toruń, Poland). He conducted several fellowships at the University of Cambridge and the British Institute of International and Comparative Law. He is a Member of the International Law Association and the European Society of International Law. In addition, Marcin is the author of numerous publications on arbitration, both in Poland and English, on international law and arbitration, and a frequent speaker at conferences dedicated to these subjects. Marcin graduated from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the Nicolaus Copernicus University. He completed advanced studies at the universities in Geneva, Cambridge and the Hague.
