

Michał Jochemczak

Michał Jochemczak heads the Dentons' Warsaw office Arbitration Practice Group and is also a core member of the Dispute Resolution Practice Group. He specializes in complex arbitration and litigation. He has represented clients in arbitration under the leading institutional rules (ICC, VIAC, LCIA) and in ad hoc domestic and international arbitration. Michał has been recommended as an expert in arbitration by a number of client and peer reviews. Michał has acted as counsel in numerous international joint-venture, M&A, real estate, construction, corporate, energy and financial services disputes. He advises clients on international civil law and has significant experience in the fields of jurisdiction, enforcement of judgments and conflict of laws. Michał also provides legal advice to creditors, management and shareholders in bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings. He has in-depth experience in corporate matters as well as in procedural issues of competition law. Michał is an active arbitrator: He received his first appointment in international arbitration under the ICC Rules at the age of 30. Michał was also one of the core members of the ad hoc committee drafting the new Rules of Arbitration of the Lewiatan Arbitration Court (second largest arbitration court in Poland).
